

Pre-law Advising

Are you interested in a career in law? Take advantage of our services below:

Visit our Pre-law webpage to learn what it means to be pre-law, how to prepare for law school during your undergraduate program, and guidance on the law school application.

Attend our weekly Pre-law Drop ins every Tuesday 3-4pm at Stearns 101. Bring any and all pre-law questions. Drop ins are first come, first serve and you can sign-up beforehand on NUworks.

Join our pre-law listserv, where you can learn about upcoming pre-law events and opportunities. Email pre-law advisor (contact info below) to be added to the listserv.

Resources to Explore

Law School Admissions Council (LSAC.org) guidance on law application components including free LSAT prep

AccessLex.org: financial education and resources for aspiring law students

ABA- standard 509 disclosures, bar passage and employment outcomes

Law School Transparency-law school search tool

PoliCorner.org- politics, law and public service jobs and internships.

Network with the Pre-law Community

Connect with your peers and alumni on these social platforms:

Northeastern University Pre-law/Legal Community LinkedIn Group

Pre-law Community Slack Channel

Consider getting involved in the following Pre-law student groups:

- Phi Alpha Delta (PAD)
- Mock Trial Team

Pre-law Advisor: Amorette Farkas, am.farkas@northeastern.edu

Contact with any questions or to be added to the pre-law listserv