

Activate your institutionally sponsored membership to the National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity!

Northeastern University is an institutional member of the National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity (NCFDD). It is an independent professional development, training and mentoring community for over 71,000 faculty, postdocs and graduate students, dedicated to supporting academics in making successful transitions throughout their careers.

FACULTY WILL GAIN IN THE FOLLOWING WAYS:

- Greater success with publications and securing external funding for research
- Increased confidence as an independent researcher and scholar
- Healthier personal and professional relationships with departmental colleagues
- Increased interactions with campus-based and external mentors, sponsors, and collaborators
- Increased job satisfaction and retention

NCFDD focuses on Four Key Areas to Support Faculty Thriving in Academia:

1. Strategic Planning

Learn how to plan your academic year, your term, and your weekly schedule in a way that is aligned with tenure and/or promotion criteria

2. Explosive Productivity

Learn the skills and strategies that will help you publish more research, win more grants, and manage your internal resistance to writing

3. Healthy Relationships

Learn how to manage your professional relationships and build a thriving network of mentors, sponsors, and collaborators

4. Work-Life Balance

Learn how to reduce your stress, prioritize your self-care, and find balance in your personal and professional life
