NORTHEASTERN LAW'S CENTER FOR PUBLIC INTEREST ADVOCACY
AND COLLABORATION IS PROUD TO HOST:

A Conversation with WILLIAM ALLEN: Correcting a Fundamental Unfairness Through the Clemency Process

In January 2022, William Allen was granted clemency by Governor Baker after 28 years of incarceration for felony murder for his participation in a robbery. William and his attorney, Patty DeJuneas, fought for years to convince Governor Baker and the Governor's Council to commute his sentence, which is a constitutionally provided procedure for individuals serving life without the possibility of parole. At this event, William and Patty will talk about the clemency process, William's many successes while incarcerated, the unavailability of programming for lifers and barriers to re-entry. William is also enthusiastic about engaging with questions from the Northeastern community.

Lunch will be provided.
Remote attendance available.
