

Rose Zoltek-Jick
Associate Teaching Professor, Northeastern University School of Law
Associate Director, Civil Rights and Restorative Justice Project

Academic Positions/ Courses Taught /Other Responsibilities

- Northeastern University School of Law, 1986 - present: Criminal Justice (Substantive Criminal and Procedure), Evidence, Professional Responsibility, Pathway to Practice, Advanced Criminal Procedure (Bail to Jail), Advanced Criminal Procedure (Investigation), Law & Psychiatry, Civil Procedure
- Northeastern University School of Law, 2012—present: Civil Rights and Restorative Justice Project seminar and clinic (co-taught with Margaret Burnham)
- Northeastern University School of Law, 2014—present: Civil Rights and Restorative Justice Project—Associate Director
- Boston University School of Law, Adjunct Professor, Winter/Spring, 2007, Criminal Law
- Harvard University Law School, Visiting Lecturer, Fall 2000: Evidence

Legal Scholarship

Survivors' Children and Their Choice of a Life in the Law, New England Journal of Public Policy, Winter 2017

<http://scholarworks.umb.edu/nejpp/>

Top Ten Criminal Evidence Cases in the United States, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016— McWilliams' Canadian Criminal Evidence, Canada Law Book

For Whom Does the Bell Toll?: Repressed Memory and Challenges for the Law--Getting Beyond The Statute of Limitations, a chapter in Trauma and Memory, Oxford University Press, 1997

Psychiatric Duties to Third Parties: Ramona and Beyond, with Dr. Paul S. Appelbaum, cover article, The American Journal of Psychiatry, volume 153, pp. 457-465 (1996)

The Use of PTSD to Support an Insanity Defense, with Henry Steadman, Paul S. Appelbaum, Daniel Givelber, and Tom Grisso, American Journal of Psychiatry, volume 150, pp. 229-234 (1993)

Other Law- Related Activities, Positions and Achievements

Criminal Law Prize, Bar Admission Program, 1983

Articled for the Office of Special Prosecutions and Appeals of the Attorney- General for the Province of Ontario, 1982 and worked as Crown Counsel, 1983-1984

Trial work, assisting Alan Dershowitz on several cases, including the Claus von Bulow re-trial, 1983-1984

Consultant, Sentencing Guidelines, Middlesex District Attorney's Office, 1984

Fellow, Center for Criminal Justice, Harvard Law School, 1984-1986

Law-Related Writings and Presentations

Editorial Op-Eds, The Boston Globe (Guilty but Mentally Ill--John Salvi, William Weld and the Death Penalty); The Boston Herald (Rape Crisis Center Counselor Charged with Contempt)

Radio and Television Commentary, New England News; The Connection with Christopher Lydon, WBUR (The Nanny Trial, The Unabomber Trial/ Incompetency to Stand Trial)

Reconciliation and History, class presentation, Suffolk University, Winter 2016

Orientation Opening Speech, Northeastern University School of Law: Professionalism, Fall 2016 and Fall 2017

Holocaust Awareness Week, Northeastern University, Speaker, Survivors' Children and their Choice of Law, Winter 2017

Symposium/Panel Moderator, Resurrecting Their Stories, Tuskegee University, Summer 2017

Symposium/Panel Moderator, Reparative Justice and Social Healing: Research and Reflection on Historic Violence, National Association of Community and Restorative Justice, Oakland, Summer 2017

Moderator, What Does It Mean to be a Prosecutor Now?, Roundtable Panel, Northeastern University School of Law, Fall 2017

Program Facilitator, Historical Injustices and Present Policing, Cambridge MA Police Department, 2019

Course Design, CRRJ Podcast course offered with the NU School of Journalism, in collaboration with Katie Sandson, Qainat Khan and Rachel Gotbaum, 2020-2021

Moderator, Historical Racial Violence in the Classroom: What We are Teaching, By Hands Now Known Conference launching the Burnham-Nobles Digital Archive, Fall, 2022

Education

Harvard Law School, L.L.M, 1985-1986

Columbia University Law School, Special Student, 1981-1982

Osgoode Hall Law School, L.L.B., 1981

University of Toronto, B.A. (Hons.), 1977