2010 Fall Workshops

Northeastern University Libraries' Digital Media Design Studio is a collaborative and interdisciplinary learning environment for creating course-related multimedia presentations, projects, and portfolios. In the following workshops, participants will familiarize themselves with the technology and possibilities offered in the Studio.

10/13 & 10/14 Photoshop Basics

10/13 | 11:45 AM - 1:25 PM & 10/14 | 2:50 PM - 4:30 PM

Let us teach you the basics of image adjustment and editing. In this workshop, you will learn how to paint, draw, and edit in Photoshop. After all the separate pieces are created, learn how to bring it all together to make a dynamic multi-layered project.

10/27 & 10/28 Illustrator Basics

10/27 | 11:45 AM - 1:25 PM & 10/28 | 2:50 PM - 4:30 PM

This workshop is designed to teach you all about vector images and typography. Learn how to create, edit, and bring your ideas to the screen using the basic tools of illustrator.

11/10 Introduction to Editing in Final Cut Pro

11/10 | 11:45 AM - 1:25 PM

This workshop will teach you about video and editing in Final Cut Pro. Learn how to capture video, find out how to apply filters and color corrections to create a professional quality video.
