

Welcome to the Northeastern community! We hope this email finds you happily engaged in your fall journey as you experience all The N.U.in Program has to offer.

When you transition into the spring semester and onto the Boston campus, the Office of Student Orientation and Family Programs is here to assist you in this next chapter of your Northeastern experience. Husky 101 Orientation and Welcome Week will acclimate you to campus and provide you with the necessary resources and tools that will support a successful transition.

Husky 101 Orientation is mandatory for students but optional for family members. As you begin planning for your on-campus arrival in Boston, please use the following information.

SPRING 2023 ARRIVAL TIMELINE

Move-in

- Students will be assigned a move-in date of either Wednesday, January 4, or Thursday, January 5.
- Assigned move-in dates and times will be sent to students in December with their room assignments, as well as information on how to request a date change. If possible, students should not book travel until they receive their official move-in date.

- Resources: Housing and Residential Life or housing@northeastern.edu

Husky 101 Student and Family Orientation

- Husky 101 Orientation is mandatory for students and optional for families.
- Students will attend their mandatory session the day following their assigned move-in date. The optional Family Program will follow the same sequence.
 - January 4 Move-in, January 5 Mandatory Student Orientation
 - January 5 Move-in, January 6 Mandatory Student Orientation
- Student sessions include: Exploring & Knowing Your Campus, Campus Resources & Services, Student Involvement & Engagement
