We are One Northeastern: A Faculty Professional Development Series

A joint partnership between the Office of the Provost and Northeastern's global campus network

Professional development opportunities are key to faculty growth and enhancing satisfaction. Through a joint effort between the Office of the Provost and the global network campuses, we launched this series in fall 2021. We hope you will join our first virtual event of the series!

Topic: "Structuring and Supporting Diverse Classrooms: A Practical Guide for Faculty"

Who: All faculty at Northeastern's network campuses

When: Monday, November 14, 2022, Pacific Time: 3-4:30pm | Eastern Time: 6-7:30pm

Where: Virtual via ZOOM (Click here to Join)

Join your colleagues virtually for our first event in the 2022-2023 of faculty professional development series. Senior Vice Provost Deb Franko and Center for Advancing Teaching and Learning through Research (CATLR) Director of Design and Integration Michael Sweet will kick off our event, followed by faculty guest speakers who will discuss issues and explore opportunities for fostering a sense of belonging and addressing diversity within classrooms. Please join us!
