Northeastern University Intramural Sports

Free Agents

Free agents are students interested in participating in Intramural Sports, but do not have a team to join. If you register as a free agent, your name and e-mail will be posted online for team managers to access. Teams that need players will contact free agents to join their team.

Keep in mind free agents are not guaranteed to be placed on a team. Individuals will be contacted by team managers seeking players, and not by the Intramural Department.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is a free agent?

A free agent is an individual who registers to make themselves available to be added to an intramural team. Free agents registered on the online can be added by a team manager at any point during the season including the playoffs.

How do I register as a free agent?

Register online at IMLeagues.com. You will need to create an account and make yourself available as a Free Agent. This will let managers know you are looking for a team.

Will I definitely make it on a team?

There is no guarantee that you will be placed on a team. It is the choice of the team managers to contact free agents.

What happens if I am not contacted by a team manager?

If the season begins and you have not been contacted by a team manager, we advise attending league games. The game schedule can be found online on IMLeagues.com

Can I contact team managers?

Because of privacy concerns, we do not provide the contact information of team managers, however, through IMLeagues you can request to join their teams. Some managers will have marked their teams as "Looking for Players" or "Accepting Free Agents".
